For under $125 plus site development cost, you can have a web presence that will promote your business for a year, as well as, standout among all the rest!

Design Lunacy's costs are lower than most designers. We host with Pair Networks, an industry-leader in web site hosting and one of the fastest hosting services in the business. Our hosting costs through Pair are substantially lower than any local hosting service. With over 150,000 sites from all over the globe being hosted by Pair Networks, you know you are hosting with the best! With Pair Networks, you are hosting your site on a legitimate hosting service not an ISP with a few megs of space and slow backbone connections to the Internet. With Pair Networks, you know the costs upfront unlike some hosters that offer low introductory rates but then charge you to add individual services.

Design Lunacy include services and pays attention to details the others miss like; custom graphic design, meta-tag insertion, original Flash animation for site intros, page titles, etc., free-updates for six months and usually within 24 hours of receiving update material.

All prices are subject to change with no prior notice.
